Glendale druggists have requested the publication of the Harrison anti-narcotic bill, which is now a law and contains points that everyone should know:

MANY RESPOND

WORK OF EVANGELISTS AT THE TABERNACLE LEADS MANY TO SEEK NARROW WAY

(By Publicity Com.)

Tuesday afternoon Brother Brown got down to definite Bible teaching, opening up a series of addresses on the dispensation of the Holy Spirit. According to his scheme of the ages, Bible history is broken up into nine distinct dispensations, six of which are past, the seventh here, and two yet to come.

In each of these dispensations God tried man only to find him a failure. Each dispensation, moreover, ends in judgment. The teacher stated the nine dispensations in the following nomenclature: (1) Innocence, ending in the expulsion from Eden; (2) Conscience, ending in the flood; (3) Authority, ending in confusion of tongues at Babel; (4) Promise, from the call of Abram, ending in Egyptian bondage; (5) Law, ending in Assyrian and Babylonian captivity; (6) Christ, the thirty-three and a half years of his life, ending in the crucifixion at which time there was a judgment and a resurrection the extent of which we do not know; (7) Dispensation of the Holy Spirit, which is the present dispensation; (8) Millennial glory; (9) Dispensation of eternity.

The evangelist gave it as his conviction that we are now approaching the end of the current dispensation and the coming of Christ is imminent. "At such a time as ye think not."

Having stated his arrangement of the plan of the ages, the speaker proceeded to a discussion of the personality of the Holy Spirit. In the course of the present study he aims to define the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the two other persons of the Holy Trinity and above all to make it clear that the Holy Ghost is not an influence like electricity, or a book, as some teach. He also has a message for those good people who live along the coast of Ephesus who know not that such a person has been given to the church on earth.

As for those who claim the Holy Spirit is not to be understood, in a splendid oratorical run on God, the Father, and God, the Son, he led to the conviction that the Holy Spirit, too, should be known and can be known to the sincere searcher after the truth.

Personality of the Holy Spirit

Under the general head of the personality of the Holy Spirit, the following passages were quoted and commented on:

John 16:13. Note the use of the personal pronoun, he, his, him. The correction of Rom. 8:16 in the revised where "himself" is substituted for "itself" is important. We insult the Holy Spirit by referring to him as "it." We would not call a friend a thing or refer to a person as "it."

Acts 5:3. Ananias lied to the Holy Ghost. Can one lie to a thing or a book?

Eph. 4:30. Grieve not the Holy Spirit. Can one grieve an influence? Mt. 12:32. It is possible to sin against the Holy Ghost.

What sort of a person is he?

(1) Eternal, Heb. 9:14; (2) Omnipresent, Ps. 139:7-9; (3) Omniscient, 1 Cor. 2:10; (4) Omnipotent, Rom. 15:19.

In connection with the omnipresence of the Holy Spirit the preacher deplored the petitioning of God to send the Holy Spirit when he is already here, the abiding one. Neither would he express the desire to be on earth when Christ was among men in bodily presence, for did not Jesus say that it was expedient for him to go away that the Comforter might come? The personal reference to his own experience of being away from home so much, going up and down the land was very touching. Brown testified that the Holy Spirit was always with him and that when going into a new town he felt there was one he knew abiding there and that when called to stand for the first time before a large audience, there to be sized up and measured by critical eyes, he always prayed for the abiding presence of the blessed Holy Ghost and that he might feel the everlasting arms about him.

On the omniscience of the Holy Spirit it was confidently stated that the one who inspired holy men of old to write the books of the Bible will today take the humblest saint of God and show the things of God unto him. Reference was here made to the career of D. L. Moody, the man who studied his Bible on his knees till he found nuggets in every mine, water flowing from every rock, and heavenly manna falling from every sky.

The practical side of Bible study was brought out. The Bible must be studied systematically and in correct order. Some folk who say they can

MEETING IS OF MORE THAN ORDINARY INTEREST

CITY OFFICIALS ARE IN DIFFICULT SITUATION REGARDING THE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT ORDINANCE SOON TO COME UP FOR THIRD READING—MANY PHASES OF LICENSE
ORDINANCE ALSO UP FOR DISCUSSION

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall Tuesday evening, February 23, 1915, instead of Monday evening, on account of Monday being a legal holiday. Present: O. A. Lane, president of the board, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams; also present: T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of the public service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer, and G. H. Herald, city marshal.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and the same were approved.

This meeting seemed to be of more than ordinary interest to the citizens residing between Brand boulevard and Orange streets south of Broadway. The facts were brought out that a few weeks ago Chas. W. Kent & Son had asked and received permission to move a building to their lots between Brand and Orange, the trustees, or at least some of them, understanding that the building was to be used only as a warehouse in which to store unused machinery. Kent & Son being of that progressive make-up which does not believe in having machinery stand idle, made arrangements to operate the machinery. As soon as their intentions became known to the residents of that locality, protests came in galore, asking that these gentlemen should not be permitted to engage in the operation of planing mills and sawing machines in what might be termed an apartment house settlement.

According to present conditions in the city there is no industrial district, so these gentlemen had no other place to which they could move their machinery, and they presented a communication to the board of trustees Tuesday evening asking permission to operate their machinery for at least thirty days until a permit might be granted them to engage in the business elsewhere in the city. The reading of this request brought out enthusiastic protests. Mrs. Eudemiller, who owns an apartment house in close proximity to the Kent warehouse, was represented by Attorney O. O. Clark, who in his very able address would have it appear that the noise of a planing mill or a saw mill is such as would be tolerated only in a "back woods" district. Attorney Clark's arguments were reinforced by earnest talks from J. J. McGinnis, Oma Fish, Mrs. C. M. Carpenter and others, all claiming that the noise of the planing mill was disturbing their peace, and in some instances driving tenants from their apartments.

Roy Kent, the junior member of the firm of Chas. W. Kent & Son, pleaded for a few weeks' time in which the city trustees might be in a position to give them a place to which they might move their warehouse and machinery. He said it was a matter of dollars and cents to them, and if they could not get a suitable place in Glendale, it would be necessary for them to transfer their place of operation to Los Angeles.

This contention brought before the board the importance of passing a restricted non-industrial ordinance for certain sections of the city, which would be to the effect that industries would be allowed to operate between Glendale avenue and Howard street and Third and Second streets. Certain members of the board were ready to vote for the adoption of this ordinance at Tuesday evening's meeting, but Mayor Lane said he had promised that this ordinance would not be passed until property owners in the neighborhood of the proposed industrial district should be given a chance to appear again before the board.

From present indications it would seem that the ordinance will come up for a third reading and adoption at the next meeting of the board. The question of establishing an industrial district in Glendale is a difficult one to carry out and give satisfaction to all property owners, and the board of trustees should not be severely criticised for any action they may take, because it has come to a time when they find it necessary to make some provision for the industries of the city.

The petition presented by Kent & Son was denied, with the understanding that provisions would be made at an early date making it possible for them to secure a suitable place to operate their machinery.

T. W. Watson, city manager, called the attention of the board of trustees to the necessity of a change in grade of Central avenue between Broadway and Hawthorne street. He said improvements are being proposed on Hawthorne street and it is not practical to make these improvements so long as the grade corrections are not made as referred to above. A motion prevailed that if the property owners will pay for the curb and the street improvements, the city will bear the expense of doing the filling, which will not exceed $200.

The announcement was made that the time of the present contract for printing has expired, and on motion the city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for printing for the coming year.

At a former meeting of the board the city manager was instructed to procure fire insurance on the city hall, including the new addition. He reported that R. C. Sternberg had made application for insuring the building and he recommended that the insurance be placed with Mr. Sternberg. The recommendation was concurred in by the board.

The contract for improving Bena way was awarded to Peter L. Ferry, who was announced as having the lowest bid of the three contractors bidding. The award is published elsewhere in this issue of the Evening News.

City Attorney Evans said he had prepared a notice concerning the opening and widening of Orange Grove avenue east of Adams street and recommended that the same be published according to law, notifying the property owners that the hearing of protests will take place March 22nd. Said notice is published elsewhere in this issue of the Evening News.

The merchants' license ordinance was taken up for third reading and discussion. Harry Chase, representing the realty board of Glendale, was present and said that the real estate dealers of the city had taken the question of paying a license up for consideration, and had decided that it would not be for their best interests to pay the proposed license of $3 per year, and he therefore asked that there be no license tax placed upon the real estate men of the city. Later in the evening the request of Mr. Chase was granted. There were many other phases of the license ordinance discussed, pro and con, the members of the board failing to agree upon all conditions of the ordinance in time to have the same adopted at Tuesday evening's meeting. The ordinance will likely come up for further consideration at the next regular meeting of the board.

Adjournment.

SEAGULLS FLY INLAND

Numerous communities situated several miles distant inland are reporting visits this winter from large flocks of seagulls. Glendale has not been slighted by these graceful birds, who are said to be driven inland by hunger. They are said to have visited the Thoron ranch several times and the Andersons of Sycamore canyon entertained the birds in large numbers at one time. Early this morning three large flocks of gulls were seen hovering over Glendale, flying very low and making their way toward the canyon, where they have learned that food supplies are bountiful. Old residents here and elsewhere in Southern California say this is the first time they have known the seagulls to come so far inland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gould of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and the Misses Toll will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll this evening.

NEW PHYSICIAN HERE

A worthy addition to the list of Glendale's able professional men is Dr. Raymond Ludden, who recently made the decision that is being made by many others daily, that Glendale is a good place in which to live. Dr. Ludden moved to Glendale a few weeks ago and now has offices equipped at his residence, 114 S. Brand boulevard, for the practice of his profession, that of an osteopathic physician. Dr. Ludden comes to Glendale from Colton where he practiced for ten years, having had five years previous experience in his profession.

He comes recommended as an able physician and osteopath as well as a most worthy citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 227 Central avenue are spending Sunday and Monday in Walnut, visiting Mrs. Parker's brother, Mr. St. Claire, of that city.

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVE

STUDENT BODY PLANS ATTENDING
TABERNACLE MEETINGS
—ALSO "MISSION PLAY"

Brown and Curry came over to the high school this morning and cheered things up for a period just before dinner. Mr. Curry sang two solos, while Mr. Brown, the evangelist (he requested that he be called neither reverend or doctor), finished up the period with a rousing talk on character. A high school night at the tabernacle was arranged for Thursday evening, the pupils meeting at the school at 7 o'clock.

Special arrangements have been made for the students and citizens of Glendale who wish to attend the "Mission Play" at San Gabriel for Monday afternoon. Through the courtesy of Mr. John Steven McGroarty, the students will receive a special admission rate of 25 cents, while the regular admission of 50 cents will prevail for all others.

However, the Pacific Electric will make a reduced round trip fare of 45 cents and probably less to all who make this excursion. Orders for tickets may be left at the high school.

Plans are on way for the playing of a postponed soccer game with Pasadena this coming Saturday afternoon—if it doesn't rain. Let's hope it is clear.

CLUB WOMEN TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Glendale will be well represented at the district convention of women's clubs to be held at Long Beach next week, beginning Tuesday, March 2d. Wednesday, March 3d will be the finest day educationally at the convention, and is of special interest to the Glendale clubs, since the president of the Tuesday Afternoon club will be one of the speakers and Mrs. P. S. McNutt, winner of the local parliamentary contest, will represent the club in the parliamentary contest with other clubs of the district.

A large number of Glendale ladies are planning to make Wednesday Glendale day. A car will be chartered if enough ladies plan to go, and Mrs. Frederick Baker, chairman of this excursion, requests all interested to communicate with her. Mrs. Daniel Campbell, chairman of badges, states that they may be secured at Mrs. C. H. Eudemiller's store, 405 S. Brand boulevard.

Mrs. W. E. Evans, tie contestant with Mrs. McNutt in the Glendale contest, will be her alternate at the convention. The delegates from this club, besides the president, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, are Mrs. P. S. McNutt, and Mrs. A. L. Weaver; the alternates are Mrs. Frederick Baker, and Mrs. Frank Grosvenor.

RECIPROCITY DAY

The Los Angeles district California Congress of Mothers, of which our local Parent-Teacher associations are the children, will hold a very interesting meeting at the Pasadena high school at 10:15 Thursday, Feb. 25, 1915. There will be good music and expert advice, and reports on the work undertaken by the Congress all over the United States in the matter of raising better children, physically. The Congress has prepared a set of films that show to the eye some of the conditions met, and some of the results obtained. These films will be shown at this meeting. Besides other features of interest, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, who has made exhaustive study of the measures before the legislative bodies of California, particularly those affecting women and children, will speak on several of the important ones.

All women should become informed concerning these matters, so the local federation has made great effort to induce as many of their women as can do so to go over. Several auto loads will leave the Intermediate school at 9:30, but those who desire to go by car can take the Lamanda Park car on Colorado boulevard, Pasadena, and go directly there. A cafeteria luncheon will be served in the high school at 25 cents.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. V. Price Brown of 147 South Louise street, gave a party on Monday in honor of the birthday of her son Earl X. Brown. Twelve of Earl's high school friends were the guests and were seated at the table, which was tastefully decorated with cherries, hatchets and the red, white and blue, it also being George Washington's birthday. A big red and white birthday cake with tiny flags instead of candles, occupied the place of honor and was cut by the young host. Games and music completed the afternoon's entertainment and a happy afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Miss Cora Hickman of the board of managers of the Florence Crittendon home and also secretary and auxiliary treasurer of the home, extends an invitation to those philanthropic and public spirited citizens of Tropic and Glendale to visit the Florence Crittendon home Saturday afternoon, February 27, from one to four o'clock. Among the guests who will make a tour of inspection of the handsome new home will be members of the Los Angeles city council, board of supervisors, and city mothers' bureau. Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Johnson, through whose generosity this fine $100,000 property was deeded to the city of Los Angeles, will be in attendance with the board of managers. The home is located on Griffin avenue and Avenue 33. Many inquiries have been received by Miss Hickman relative to the day when the tour of inspection would occur and she is pleased to announce the date as well as invite all to attend.

The regular all day meeting of N. P. Banks Post and Corps will be held in G. A. R. hall Friday. Friday's program will be in charge of the Post and will be in commemoration of the birthday anniversaries of three of the greatest presidents of the United States. Mrs. Alma Dutton will give the eulogy on George Washington, Mrs. Della Hagood on Abraham Lincoln, and Mrs. Flora Pixley on William McKinley. R. Dana Goss, past post commander of N. P. Banks and Robert Danner of the Sons of Veterans and Mrs. D. W. Danner of the Relief Corps are arranging the musical program.

WASHINGTON GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, with their two babies, arrived Friday from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Clark is a niece of Mr. J. J. Graf of 1219 Lomita avenue. She will make her home in Glendale for several months, as her husband wishes her and the babies to enjoy the pure air and sunshine of Glendale while he remains on the coast.

Mr. Clark is in the employ of the government, being superintendent of wireless stations. He left Sunday evening for San Francisco.

LOCAL PITCHER WITH ANGELS

John Galt, Glendale's semi-pro pitcher, is receiving a try-out with the Los Angeles ball club this spring. Seems as though John, who by the way is a full-blooded Sherman Indian, was recommended to Captain Frank Dillon, manager of the Angel aggregation, by Howard Elmke, the Glendale high school phenom who is now with the Buffalo Federal league club.

Galt is well known all over Southern California for his athletic prowess since a lad at Sherman Institute, and he has every chance to make good in his new place. This morning's Los Angeles Tribune says the following of him:

Galt was the cynosure of all eyes. Unk Francis believes this Redskin is likely to make some pitcher. Galt has a knuckle ball and a splitter besides a few of the other elements needed by a winning twirler.

In reply to several inquiries that have been made, it should be said that the artistic and effective decorations which made the stage of the high school auditorium so attractive on the occasion of the patriotic committee celebration on Washington's birthday, were under the direction of Miss M. Irene Muller of the art department of the high school. The greater number of the beautiful plants used were kindly loaned by Mr. C. H. Woolsey.

not memorize scripture seem strangely able to recite poetry.

Under the subdivision of the omnipotence of the Holy Spirit the evangelist delivered much of great value to most religious communities of the day. He was careful to distinguish between the miracles of Moses and those of Christ, which were undoubtedly on a higher plane. The fact is, all through the ages God has been leading man away from signs to the discovery of God within, to the still, small voice.

The disciples of Christ did greater works than did Christ during his earthly career, but this must not necessarily refer exclusively to miracles of healing, but rather to the conversion of souls.

The extremes of divine healing and the gift of tongues were unsparingly handled. Christian Science, Mormonism, Dowiesism were all born of the sign craze and fed by the dupes of fanaticism and so-called scientific demonstration. The first modern tongues were discovered among the Mormons, a fact which should have weight among thinking people.

Attendance at a modern tongue meeting suggests to the unbiased critic the confusion of Babel rather than the straight-forward talking in the many languages represented on the occasion of Pentecost.

The healing of the body is not the great thing; rather let us work and pray for the greatest miracle of all, the remaking of men and women by the power of the glorious gospel.

Rev. Willisford of the First Congregational church led in a very impressive evening prayer thanking God for the evidence of God's working among us. Mr. Curry sang very tenderly "Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me." There is power in this hymn which will be felt more and more as repeated.

Heb. 2:1-3 was read by Evangelist Brown as an evening reading from which a combination of three impressive words was selected for the basis of a telling gospel message. "If we neglect."

Familiarity with holy things and ever hearing the call of God and Heaven in sermon and song sometimes produces indifference, if not perfect apathy.

The speaker rapidly reviewed the outstanding facts of Christology ending with the impressive climax: "All these things being true, how shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" It is not a question in this connection of what we do, but rather of what we do not do. A man may be moral and yet be lost neglecting to do what he should do.

The great sin that will sink the soul into the depths of hell is that of turning the back on Jesus Christ. From that sin all other sins flow. There is no difference, for scripture teaches that all have sinned. To stand outside the cleansing blood of Christ is to stand outside the kingdom of Heaven.

The preacher then proceeded to expatiate on what neglect will do; first to the twentieth century church, second to the home, third to the twentieth century worshiper, fourth to the sinner.

It was shown that the church is hurt more by the neglect of lukewarm members than by blatant infidels; and beneath a surface diagnosis of the disease afflicting the average church is discovered something that indicates neglect. It may be neglect of prayer meeting, Sunday school etc.

Lodges and clubs again came in for their share of condemnation, not that the evangelist is opposed to such organizations, but that he is overpowering against any human organization that does not put the church high over all. (Right here there were many hearty amens from the congregation.) Has the church been sidetracked by clubs and lodges?

The home was again dealt with. No city can rise higher than its homes which are so many rivers flowing into the city and out into the nation. When the fire does die out on the family altar and the altar falls, angels know and weep and that home goes on the rocks. The prodigal may drift from a godly home, but he is sure to return, for there is as much chance of an angel falling out of Heaven as for such an one to be finally lost.

Next came the worshiper. He who neglects the means of grace is surely dead, though he may not be willing to confess it. A strong appeal was made to the backslider to put the standard back.

Finally the sinner was warned of the peril of neglect. It would take a preacher to appreciate the matchless application of the man late for the train. "Almost but lost." It was intense and rightly so, for have we not come to the very gate of Heaven and even now many are passing out into an eternal night and on Christless graves the angel of death is writing "lost by neglect?"

The appeal merged into an invitation service to which scores responded. It was all so sweet and solemn. The seeker bathed in tears, some kneeling on the sawdust floor, some standing by, some sitting, the evangelist alert for souls, Brother Curry with his sweet voice wooing the sinner home, supported by a sympathetic chorus, angels invisible to mortal eye hovering near, and in the midst the blessed Holy Ghost revealing the Christ uplifted on Calvary's cross. Such scenes will abide the ravages of time, for in that hour souls made contact with the living God through Jesus Christ and the preaching of his glorious gospel.

There is good reason for the expectancy of the pastors and churches co-operating. Such scenes so early in the meeting indicate the droppings before the mighty showers of blessings.

At the afternoon service at 2:30 Rev. Brown will continue the series on the Holy Spirit which started out with such a large hearing Tuesday. Service in the evening at 7:30. Friday night will be Tropic night and a big delegation is planned. Brethren Rider and Smith have charge of this important rally.

A prayer meeting is held each evening at the Baptist church prompt at 7 o'clock. Remember to bring the song book to all services.

EAGLE ROCK

A prize picture of the "Los Angeles Fashion Show Girl" drawn by Sarah Langley, appeared in the Sunday Times February 21. Mrs. Langley is a resident of this city, residing on Lawrence avenue.

The missionary society of the Methodist church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Crow of Harvard Park. The speaker, Mrs. Smith, mother of the pastor, gave a very beneficial and interesting talk to the ladies. A lunch was served by the hostess.

F. Nits, the vegetable peddler, now has a fine new wagon with top and sides of canvas. It certainly displays his goods to perfection.

Sunday evening at the Congregational church Rev. Hartshorn of Los Angeles gave an interesting talk on "The Mountains of California" with the aid of stereopticon slides.

A large number of our citizens have been attending the revival meetings held in Glendale and are greatly interested in them. The names Brown and Curry are well known by a number of our people, who enjoyed hearing them last summer at Huntington Beach.

This city should feel very proud indeed to have such a recognized artist as is in the person of Hanson Puthuff. Two of his best paintings are on exhibition at Arts building at the San Francisco exposition. This speaks well of his work, as ever so many competitors' pictures throughout the state were refused.

Rev. Sanborn of Oakland has returned to his home after a short visit here with his daughters Ruth and Dorothy Sanborn, who are students at Occidental college.

Mr. and Mrs. Candee and daughter Lois of Ellenwood Drive spent one day last week at the beach, making the trip in their auto.

A number of Eagle Rock "folks" formerly from Iowa attended the Iowa picnic held Monday, February 22d, at Eastlake park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Crow of Harvard Park spent Sunday with her mother in Los Angeles.

Misses Alta and Bessie Jillson and brother Louis are now nicely settled in their new home in the Daniels apartments on east Sycamore avenue. These young people are attending college here.

The new Carnegie library will be completed this week but will not be opened on the date heretofore stated on account of that date being chosen by the Women's club for the opening of their club house, the date being February 25, and it is Founder's day. Just twelve years ago the Women's Twentieth Century club held its first meeting and during all those years had dreamed of a beautiful club home and now the dream has been realized. A reception will be held Thursday evening for all the friends of the club and others interested, and a general good time is promised.

Rev. Hall, a retired minister and old soldier, will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning at the M. E. church during Rev. Smith's absence.

The Brotherhood hall was opened for the first time Monday evening, and will be open every evening during the week from now on. It is not completely furnished, but the Brotherhood want to have it as near like a Y. M. C. A. as possible and hope it will be a benefit to our city.

Wednesday, February 3, the newly reorganized missionary society met at the home of Mrs. James Robinson and elected the following officers: president, Mrs. James Robinson; vice-president, Mrs. A. D. Crow; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Stevens; recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Sanders; treasurer, Mrs. M. Goodwin.

Miss Erma Herzog entertained the members of the O. F. F. club at her home on Eagle Rock avenue last Saturday evening. Covers were laid for twenty-four and a delicious dinner was enjoyed. Table decorations were hearts and place cards were tiny valentines. After the dinner was over a business meeting was held and new officers elected for the year. President, Miss Stella Hustis; vice-president, Mrs. Harry Phinney; secretary, Miss Lucille Burch; treasurer, Miss Susie Sanderson; press correspondent, Mrs. Frances Gie.

A. A. House has had a crew of men putting in a cobblestone wall and cement walk and steps for W. Cook of Hill avenue, this week.

The new Central Dry Goods store which has been opened a little over a year, will close its doors this week.

Tuesday in honor of Mrs. George

Shiland of El Paso, Texas, who is visiting in Southern California.

Over were laid for Mrs. Ashland,

rs. H. Browman and Mrs. M. Sad-ar of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Mark

Jarris of Glendale, and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies.

PERSONALS

Miss Elsie Anderson was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Phillips of Tropic at dinner on Tuesday evening. Calla lilies were used in decorations and a two-course dinner was served.

Mrs. I. J. McReynolds of 529 South Central avenue entertained at dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hazzard, who have recently returned from an extended trip to Europe. Mr. Hazzard is a prominent Arizona attorney.

Mr. George Martin and Miss Ruth Wright have been among the faithful attendants at every evangelistic meeting held at the great tabernacle at Third and Maryland avenue, and they hope to be able to attend all of the remaining meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rupp of Worland, Wyoming, who at present are residing at 308 Belmont street, attended the orange show at San Bernardino the first of this week, and report having had a pleasant time witnessing the wonders of the show and incidentally visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weaver of 235 South Kenwood street will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth I. Weaver, who leaves tomorrow for the East. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver and son Chester, Miss Elizabeth I. Weaver, Miss Georgia Mosser and Mrs. C. B. Plank of Los Angeles.

J. R. Gray of the San Fernando road took from his garden Wednesday morning a carrot the weight of which is twelve pounds. This is another evidence that California soil contains the proper elements for producing mammoth vegetables. The carrot is on exhibition in the window of the Glendale Evening News.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Tuesday Afternoon club held Tuesday at the Masonic temple, the following were voted into membership: Mrs. Mary Brooks, 103 North Louise street; Mrs. E. E. Archer, 616 Lomita avenue; Mrs. W. E. Welz, 612 Lomita avenue; Miss Elizabeth Ainsworth, 103 North Louise street, and Miss Lillian Cutler, 226 South Louise street.

The Girls of the Round Table met at the home of Miss Katherine Hobbs Tuesday evening. Miss Irene Moffitt entertained the girls with a number of readings of Irish nature. This being the annual election of officers, the following were chosen: Miss Katherine Hobbs, president; Miss Olive Moffitt, vice-president, chairman of social committee; Miss Blanche Shea, secretary and treasurer; Miss Jean McNutt, press correspondent. Miss Esther Jones, the retiring president, was presented a beautiful bouquet of violets in appreciation of her loyal services in the past year. The club was served a delicious lap luncheon while they discussed many new plans for the future good of the club.

Mrs. W. E. Robbin and daughter Hortense, of Kansas City, have been visiting Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger of 344 South Central avenue for a few days. Mrs. Robbin was in California several years ago and remained some time, but returned to Kansas City. Now she says they have come to stay and will make their home in Los Angeles.

On Tuesday Mrs. Fred Church of 221 Orange street entertained Mrs. Jas. A. Farrell of 123 E. Broadway and Miss Supplee of Sycamore canyon at luncheon. In the afternoon the ladies all attended the parliamentary study class conducted by Mrs. Mary Edwards of 1411 West Colorado boulevard. There are about eighteen members in the class and they have some interesting meetings.

The legislative section of the Tuesday Afternoon club met at one-thirty Tuesday afternoon and were addressed by Mrs. E. K. Foster of Los Angeles, who not only charmed and delighted her hearers, but gave them a wonderful resume of the work of the legislature and the possibilities and probabilities of defeat and success of measures now before them for the advancement of women. The session was well attended and was altogether a very helpful meeting.

IT'S ONLY A DREAM

Some men use their brains in getting along in the world. Others merely use their mouths, and that is the reason death finds them still whittling chunks from the same old box. A few use their brains for the advancement of their own material interests and the elevation of their fellow men—and themselves. Many use them in an overwhelming effort to strangle competition, to hog everything in sight, to make of the world a playground for them and theirs. But if all brains and mouths could unite in an effort to safeguard honor, to protect virtue, and civilize our vaunted civilization, what a world it would be. But 'tis only a dream—and dreams seldom come true.

These loads consisted of half of his big barn, which is to be rebuilt up there. The other half was bought by Tom Berry and will be moved onto the back end of his lot, 541 Orange street. Tom, who has been working for Mr. Wood for several years, bought one of the teams and will continue to do hauling. Mr. Wood will take his family to the new location soon. He traded all his property in Glendale for the ranch mentioned.

Floyd Goodrich, wife and little Milton, who have been living at 1634 West Broadway for three years past, leave tonight for Grand Junction, Colo., where Mr. Goodrich will take charge of his father's apple ranch. A VERY FINE TIME

Another jolly George Washington party was that given Monday evening by Mrs. J. E. Rockhold of 1430 Burdett street, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Bardsley, for her two sons, Burdette and Howard. The decorations were red, white and blue, many flags being used and cherries and hatchets, etc., being everywhere in evidence. The placecards painted in water color by Howard were especially pretty and the substantial refreshments were greatly enjoyed by the fourteen boys present. Games of all kinds were played and everyone had a fine time. Among those present were Steve Beebe, Clark Sanders, Ralph Taylor, Gilbert Mitchell, Kenneth Whaley, Howard Thompson, Arthur Whipple, Frank Balthis, Maxwell Tuttle, Tom Lyons, Chester Weaver, Albert Townsend and Howard and Burdette Rockhold.

MAN AND THE GROUND

The love of dirt is among the earliest of passions, as it is the latest. Mud pies gratify one of our first and best instincts. Fondness for the ground comes back to a man after he has run the round of pleasure and business, eaten dirt and sown wild oats, drifted about the world and taken the wind in all its moods. The love of digging is sure to come back to him. To own a bit of ground, to scratch it with a hoe, to plant seeds and watch their renewal of life—this is the commonest delight of the race, the most satisfactory thing a man can do.—Chas. Dudley Warner.

The "horrors of war" are being carefully suppressed, but not with the idea of sparing anybody's feelings.

Mrs. J. C. Danford, Miss May Church and Miss Louise Phillips of Glendale are attending the district library convention at Santa Monica today, of which Mrs. Danford is secretary.
